

RAWSEP View: Book Review of

Citizen Scientists: Be a Part of Scientific Discovery From Your Own Backyard

by Loree Griffith Burns

For grades 4 to 6, this 2012 book with many photographs begins in the fall with instructions on how to gently catch, tag, and release migratory butterflies. For winter there are instructions on a Christmas Bird Count. For spring, identifying frogs by their calls. There are also profiles of experienced citizen scientists.