

Episode 57DGT April 18 2025 Talk Show Remorseful buyer of the Trump line found and interviewed!

Larry the Litigator Hello RAWSEP Residents Audience thank you for in this clean air TV studio for wearing your symbolic ski goggles showing you stand in solidarity as near neighbors of indoor residential wood burners whose wood burning PM2.5 particulates enter your yards and sicken you! Today we will bring out on stage a Remorseful buyer of the Trump line we have just found and and we will interview her The only way to do this effectively is to temporarily change the name of our organization from Residents Against Wood Smoke Emission Particulates R A W S E P to Residents Alive With Energy for a Particular Politician R A W S E P P Are you willing to make that quick change to R A W S E P P and back to R A W S E P during this brief 5 minute TV interview period my favorite RAWSEP audience?

RAWSEP Audience We hope we are not remorseful afterwards Larry the Litigator! What is to be gained?

Larry the Litigator A Democratic Party activist is waiting in the wings to welcome the Remorseful Buyer of the Trump Line to the Democratic Party after a successful interview that only R A W S E P P can provide! Ready Quick Change to R A W S E P P

RAWSEP Audience We remorsefully already take off our distinctive Ski Goggles for a greater cause and we are ready Larry the Litigator!

Larry the Litigator Come on down Mary Easterbrook! A 66 year old from Punxatawny Pennsylvania you are sort of interested in a Particular Politician who you termed Intelligent and who does not deviate too much from your political philosophy because he terms himself an independent also

Mary Easterbrook Yes I am an independent At first I called myself an independent so that I could be picked as a panelist on various interview shows about the 2024 presidential election and coaxed and wheedled to change my independent stance or at least justify it They had really good doughnuts in the Green Room I never could justify it but I mystified crowds of people around the country Recently I have felt like a sideshow freak when Trump started the tariffs that decimated my retirement account

Larry the Litigator So that sums it up folks if you lose all your money to a con man you start to feel remorseful about voting for him!

Mary Easterbrook But it is more than that! I am a deep intelligent woman! I had to find a deep intelligent man to transfer my attention to! I found that intelligence I seek in the Senator of mature years that is currently touring the country defaming the man I voted for and all his cronies!

Larry the Litigator Cronies! That is rich! You could be characterized as a crony yourself until recently! Turncoat! Sorry Mary! I got ahead of myself and my words betray me! I meant Traitor because of your embrace of Russian authoritarianism and embrace of throwing a democracy like Ukraine to the Russian wolves! I mean I am not a climate change activist! Forget my words! Listen to the lyrics of the music that wooed you and wowed you at the recent rallies of the Senator of mature years!

Larry the Litigator I am playing a plaintive tune by a songster of your youth Mary Easterbrook

The lyrics are I have been to Hollywood I have been to Redwood I searched the mountains for a heart of gold But I am growing old

Mary Easterbrook Sigh! Such Musicianship! I have been to Hollywood or at least seen the Hollywood sign! I saw a picture of a Redwood once! It was very big! I am growing old because are not we all?

Larry the Litigator But do you have a heart of gold?

Mary Easterbrook I was very angry with everyone who had stocks and bonds the so called elite I felt like garbage and I was called garbage

Larry the Litigator I believe you were only mistaken for a garbage man when you insisted on wearing an orange vest and painting your face orange for some reason

Mary Easterbrook An artistic homage

Larry the Litigator Tell me about the elite that angered you so Mary if I may call you Mary

Mary Easterbrook The so called ten percent in the United States who own 93 percent of the stocks!

Larry the Litigator But you had an epiphany? A sort of religious experience?

Mary Easterbrook I realized that the retirement account that I have paid into for the last 40 years consists primarily of stocks So I have my own stocks and bonds to lose during this coming Recession or Depression caused by Trump Tariffs

Larry the Litigator Quite an epiphany and a deep transformation of your soul from anger to the peace of acceptance of your now remorseful buy of the Trump line!

Mary Easterbrook What I like the most is the tinge of anger in the voice of the Senator I still feel a little angry I mean a lot angry but I have transferred that at Trump not with Trump

Larry the Litigator Really mature of you Mary Easterbrook!

Mary Easterbrook I am growing old on this show I have spent 5 minutes I will never get back You did not have any doughnuts in the Green Room! Really!

Larry the Litigator As Mary Easterbrook storms off into the waiting arms of a Democratic operative I wish her well

RAWSEP Audience Mary Easterbrook is gobbling the doughnuts offered by the Democratic operative in the wings! I think they will soon be having a deep discussion!

Larry the Litigator Well you can change the name of your organization back from Residents Alive With Energy for a Particular Politician R A W S E P back to Residents Against Wood Smoke Emission Particulates R A W S E P Our ruse and subterfuge worked! Should we do this again RAWSEP Audience!

RAWSEP Audience Maybe

Larry the Litigator And so we end another successful episode! Until we meet again Keep it clean RAWSEP audience!
