Abraham Lincoln delivered a speech at Cooper's Union Lyrics

Abraham Lincoln delivered a speech at Cooper's Union on February 27 1860!

Lincoln responded to radical Southerner declarations that they would leave the Union if he were elected!

Lincoln said, "Under all these circumstances, do you really feel yourselves justified to break up this Government!

unless such a court decision as yours is, shall be at once submitted to,
as a conclusive and final rule of political action?

But you will not abide the election of a Republican president!
In that supposed event, you say, you will destroy the Union!"

Lincoln said, "and then, you say, the great crime of having destroyed (the Union) will be upon us!

That is cool. A highwayman holds a pistol to my ear, and mutters through his teeth, "Stand and deliver, or I shall kill you," and then you will be a murderer!"

Lincoln said, "To be sure, what the robber demanded of me
- my money - was my own!

and I had a clear right to keep it!

but it was no more my own than my vote is my own!

and the threat of death to me, to extort my money, and the threat of destruction to the Union to extort my vote, can scarcely be distinguished in principle!"

A president wrote a reply to a foreign leader

The first Foreign Prime Minister called on a president to de-escalate after threatening allies with tariffs!

for supporting a second Foreign country amid a growing spat over the ownership of the territory of the second Foreign government!

A president wrote in reply that he

"no longer feels an obligation to think purely of peace after the first Foreign country "decided" not to give him the Peace Prize!"
