How to spin reducing vaccines to 11 from 17

The head of the vaccine panel, said, sounding somewhat keen

“What we are going to have is a real-world experience of when unvaccinated people get measles,”

What will be the anti-vaccine sequel?

Straightforwardly let the weak and vulnerable suffer and die?

Who can still survive and who will be impaired but alive?

Another vaccine panel member wanted “individual autonomy,”

Rather than “public health,” as the U S Public Health priority

Give the men credit for honesty about their revulsion with medicine

And all that pesky science and data and testing and so on

Or they might just have needle fears

Although their chief lived by it for years
