

Webisode 57DHYAFZZET February 20 2026 Russia reduced to radio that can be intercepted by Ukraine

Russia is reduced to radio that can be intercepted by Ukraine after a recent satellite internet cutoff during Russian assault on Ukraine. Russian internet has gone dark, forcing troops to rely on radio communications that can be intercepted by fully functioning Ukrainian battalions.

Mechanics use a blowtorch to thaw frozen pipes during emergency repairs after Russian strikes on critical power infrastructure cut electricity, by compare, leaving homes without heat on February 19, 2026, in Kyiv, Ukraine.

Moldova and Ukraine investigate alleged Russian-backed assassination plot in Ukraine. Directed at prominent Ukrainians. Moldovan police on February 19 launched a joint investigation with Ukrainian authorities alleging a plot was directed into assassination of several "public figures" in Ukraine, by covert Russian special services. Trump US reportedly presses allies to block Ukraine from full participation at a NATO summit. Trump US is pressing allies not to invite Ukraine to formal meetings citing four diplomats regarding the Ankara, Turkey NATO summit on July 7 to 8, 2026 meeting. Russia publicly pitches 14 trillion dollar economic deal to Trump tied to lifting US sanctions. If Washington lifts sanctions on Russia, with Trump US Russian supportive action Trump US could gain access to joint projects with Moscow worth more than 14 trillion dollars, But Kremlin economic negotiator Kirill Dmitriev on February 18 resists that collar. Saying 'Don't believe in fairy tales!' Russia scrambles for front-line signal after Starlink cut-off. Russia's assault on Ukraine has gone dark after a recent satellite internet cutoff, forcing their troops to rely on radio communications that can be intercepted by Ukrainian forces. So what about this 14 trillion dollar deal with Russia by the by? Does the 14 trillion dollars go into a Trump bank account if Trump bids Ukraine goodbye?