In Preparation for the July Twelfth of Heaven! Wood Smoke Again? Gosh! Gala
The Committee of Eternal Vigilance First Responder Near Neighbors
Of Indoor Residential Wood Burners, whose smoke enters our yards
And sickens us, but we have PurpleAir PM 2 Point 5 monitors as yard
Sticks of just how far neighboring wood burners can push us before
We invoke nuisance laws at least and at most have local law courts before
Which indoor wood burners must appear in response to ordinances when PM 2 point five galore is above 5 micrograms per cubic meter annually and so on PurpleAir Maps is downloadable to all and Appears to be above World Health Organization PM 2 point 5 pollution limits!
We First Responder Near Neighbors having formed a committee
In charge of the July Twelfth of Heaven! Wood Smoke Again? Gosh! Gala
Designed T shirts to be ejected from a harmless unless you are 2 feet
In front of it! T Shirt projectile device during the July Twelfth of Heaven! Wood Smoke Again?
Gosh! Awards Dinner or Snack a Thon which must meet in July!
To live up to its name! There will also be tap water ejected during the awards
Through conventional means of devices that look like the letter L for loser on its side
But winningly spray harmless water instead of any harmful solid fuel dome shaped Projectiles that could harm anyone! All T Shirts have the Logo "July Twelfth of Heaven! W SAG!"
The T Shirt logo is a W SAG attendee scaling a climbing wall which replaces a doused fireplace!
